OBITUARY.

Alva Johnson, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Johnson, died early Friday evening, February 7. He was in normal health till Thursday morning, when he was taken very ill and Dr. Isenberg was called, who pronounced the disease as infantile paralysis.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Saturday morning by Rev. C. M. Reed and interment was made in the Collier cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have the sympathy of their many friends.

The relatives and friends of Luverne Henkel were shocked last Saturday when W. J. Williams of this city, who is Luverne's uncle, received the sad news announcing his death on February 9th, in Alaska. The body is enroute and the burial will take place in this city the date however is not yet known as the distance is so great it is not definitely learned just when it will arrive. Luverne was a fine, bright young man and a general favorite in this community. His untimely death has caused much sorrow to all who knew him.

Meetings at the Baptist church will close Sunday evening. The church has been much strengthened and some fifteen have confessed Christ. All are invited to attend the services the remainder of the week. Captain Wm. Quillian.

On Tuesday Mrs. I. T. Purcell and Mrs. W. Y. Herrick motored to Ellis and brought Mrs. J. H. Ward and Mrs. Vose, of Ellis, back with them. Mrs. Vose returned on the evening train and Mrs. Ward remained as a guest of Mrs. Purcell's for a few days.

Eric Lindberg, merchant of Ogallala, was in the city Thursday and made us a pleasant call. While here he made arrangements to entertain all his friends with a free lunch dinner at his farm north of Ogallala on inauguration day, March 4th. Read his ad on page 8.

Mrs. Clyde Poffenberger, who lives near Voda, had to come to Wa-Keeney the first of the week to have one of the fingers on her left hand dressed by the doctor. Last fall she ran a Russian thistle into the finger as well as the bone. Mrs. Poffenberger has had quite a serious time and is still under the doctor's care.

Last Wednesday Dr. and Mrs. W. Y. Herrick entertained the following guests at dinner: Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Purcell and Mrs. J. H. Ward of Hays, who has been a guest in the Purcell home this week, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cortright, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Phares and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Givler. A splendid turkey dinner was served in three courses and was much enjoyed by all. After dinner the gentlemen remained for a friendly chat of about an hour when they departed leaving the ladies with their fancy work to spend a delightful afternoon with their hostess.
